Managing Local Rights-of Way and Wisconsin's New 5G/Small Cell Law

Wednesday, March 11, 2020
10:30 am - 12:00 Noon

Recent laws and regulations to facilitate the deployment of “small wireless facilities” impact local rights-of-way and property uses. These new laws place additional limitations on a local government’s regulatory authority over wireless telecommunications facilities, include facilities used to provide the next generation of cellphone technology referred to as “5G.” Learn how and to what extent these changes affect your local rights-of-way management and property regulation authority.

Presented by Attorneys Anita Gallucci and Julia Potter, Boardman & Clark LLP

Planning Body Members Responsibilities as Local Officials

Wednesday, April 8, 2020
10:30 am - 12:00 Noon

This program for members and staff of local plan commissions, county planning and zoning committees and zoning boards of appeal/adjustment. It will cover aspects of the open meetings law, ethics and conflicts of interest laws that involve those serving on planning bodies.

Presented by Attorney Philip Freeburg, UW-Madison Division of Extension Local Government Center.
